Cornerstone Corner

School Name November 2017

Book: Big by Coleen Murtagh Paratore
Asset Focus: Empowerment and Social Competency Lesson: Big is being the biggest YOU that you can be.
Next month's book: When Sophie Gets Angry

This month's ABC book Big by Coleen Murtagh Paratore encourages students to become BIG people. The author defines BIG as being bright, helpful, imaginative, healthy, and valuable members of society.

Goals of the lesson:

- Encourage students to take small steps to achieve BIG outcomes at home, school & community.
- Internalize intrinsic rewards of doing things for the right reasons: Being an UPstander.
- Perform intentional acts of caring for others.
- Understand that everyone can be BIG in their own way.

How can I help reinforce this lesson at home?

- Discuss ways your family contributes individually & together to making a difference in the world.
- Consider reading the book, The World Needs Your Kid: Raising Children Who Care & Contribute by Craig & Marc Kielburger. This book focuses on simple everyday actions that can have a lasting influence on your child's life & the lives of those around us.

Questions to ask my child:

- How can I be BIG in my family? How can we be kind to each other in a BIG way?
- How can we be BIG in our community? What do we do to be BIG toward our planet?
- Name people who are BIG (famous, friends, family) & explain why.

Phrase of the month: You're never too big to do something little.

When you "catch" kids modeling positive behaviors...

Notice, Name, and Celebrate it!
